THE UNSEEN MACHINERY OF A GREAT MODERN HOTEL

St. Regis Hotel, New York, Equip ped With Mechanical Marvels.

tention to the "machinery" of an en-terprise. He scans the face of his watch for the time of day, but gives watch for the time of day, but gives no thought to its infricate mechanism. He enjoys his ride upon a Pullman or a paiatial steamship, but the locemotive or the engine room do not occur to his mind. This situation is exactly paralleled in the great modern hotels. The Hotel St. Regis, at Fifth Avenue and Fifty-fifth Street, New York City, is a fine example of what is required in these respects, and is a model of what can be accomplished when ability and experience combine their efforts. The power plant of this hotel contains all the latest and most approved mechanical devices that can add to the comfort of guests or aid in The community was shocked this morning when it became known that Judge Drury A. Hinton had died at his residence at a late hour last night. Judge Hinton had been in feeble hearth of for several months, but only his immediate family were aware of his real condition.

Drury A. Hinton was born in Petersburg May 4, 1839. At the age of twenty he mairfulated as a law student at the University of Virginia. When the organization of an infantry company and was elected lieutenant. He served with distinction in nearly all the battles which were fought around Petersburg. At the battle of the Crater he was volunteer aid to General D. A. Welsiger and later was appointed aid, which position he filled to the end of the war.

After the war he studied law in the office of Judge W. T. Joynes, and soon became actively engaged in politics. He was elected Commonwealth's attorney for Petersburg in 1874, a position of the legislature a member of the Readjuster party.

by the Legislature a member of the Supreme Court of Appeals, to succeed Judge Burks, and served for twelve years.

Judge Hinton was married to Miss Fannie B. Coilier on December 22, 1870, and she survives him, with the following children: Mrs. Luther Doggett, of Wilmington, Del.; Mrs. John M. Gates, of Palladelphia, and John Hinton, of Baltimore.

Of late years Judge Hinton had practically given up the practice of law the last case of prominence with which he was connected being that of Gilligan for the murder of Turner, in 1sle of Wight county, several years ago, and in which he was leading counsel for the defense.

General News.

Miss Cora M. Spain and John A. Meade were united in marriage by Rev. J. T. Bosman, at the residence of the immediate friends of the contracting parties. They left on a Northern tour and will reside at Sutherlands, Dinwiddle county, on their return. John Johnson and Fred Jackson, the negro pickpockets arrested on the circus grounds by the police Yesterday, were tried in the Police Court this morning. Johnson was sent on to the grand Jury on the charge of picking pockets, and was fined $100 and given pockets, and was fined $100 and given pockets, and was fined $100 and six months in jail for carrying concealed weapons.

Commonwealth's Attorney R. H. Many left for Richmond this evening to lay before Governor Swanson the application, Indictment and papers on behilf of the Commonwealth for a requisition for James A. Williamson, alias Chas, Myers, alias Frank J. Shaw, As soon as the papers are issued Chief Regiand will leave for Fort Russell, Wyo, where Williamson is held.

While the circus cars were being-ioaded last night in the Norfolk and Western yards, a zebra escaped and ran up the railroad track. One of the circus employes was sent after, the animal, which was finally captured, after a hot chase of several miles in Didwiddle.
